In terms of the Govt. of India, Ministry of Finance letters Govt. of India, Ministry of Finance (Banking Division) letter F.No. 10/49/84-SCT(B) dated 13 Aug 1986, the banks were instructed to give weightage to the ex-servicemen on the basis of their services in the Armed Forces for the purpose of seniority / promotion. The instruction quoted in the Govt. of India, Ministry of Finance letter is extracted below :

Bank may allow for the purpose of seniority in promotion to ex- servicemen employees recruited against reserved posts in the clerical and subordinate cadres, weightage for the period of service rendered by them in the armed forces in the ratio of 5:1 subject to maximum of 2 years after they have rendered at least 3 year actual service in the bank after reemployment. This benefit will be available to the ex-servicemen only once during their career.

Please be informed that this policy for providing weightage of the Defence service to the re-employed ex-servicemen for the purpose of seniority / promotion is already implemented in others Regional Rural Banks. It is evident that so many RRBs has issued corrigendum of their promotion circular to implement the provisions in their RRBs.

The Chairpersons,
All Regional Rural Banks.

Sub: Implementation of Government Orders/Guidelines/Policies/Instructions in letter & spirit

Madam(s)/Sir(s),

In exercise of powers conferred under the RRBs Act, 1976, the Central Government issues guidelines/instructions/directions in regard to matters of policy involving public interest, after consultation with NABARD/RBI.

2. It has, however, been observed that on several occasions in the past various RRBs have failed to comply with such directions issued by the Government in letter and spirit, which leads to indiscipline, absence of uniformity in application of such directions across RRBs, avoidable litigations, widespread grievances and unrest amongst the RRB employees.

3. All RRBs, therefore, are advised to ensure scrupulous compliance of the Central Government guidelines/instructions/directions in a non-discretionary and uniform manner.

4. Ambiguity in interpretation of the directions, if any, should be referred to DFS and it should not be interpreted at the RRB level.

5. Receipt of this letter may be acknowledged within a week.

Yours faithfully,

(Kr. Shyamal Parthsarathi)

Under Secretary to the Government of India
